Ohio will be the next state to fire another republican gun in this campaign.

Mr. Cleveland's address will be Buffalo, N. Y., after his present term of office expires.

Blaine is of the people, he is for the people, and the people will elect him president.

Mr. Hendricks knows something about politics, especially what it is to be a democratic candidate, and therefore he knows enough not to parade himself much before the people.

Mr. Lewis F. Allen, of Buffalo, uncle of Mr. Cleveland, declares that the latter's nomination was a farce, and his election would be a national calamity. Mr. Allen seems to be a man of broad common sense.

The Des Moines Register brands as a campaign lie, for export only, and not intended for home consumption, the story published in the Springfield Republican, that a list has been made of 100 leading republicans, headed by F. M. Gilbert, a leading manufacturer in Des Moines.

Another democratic paper is sick of Cleveland, and formally announces its withdrawal of the support given him several weeks ago. The Boston Star on Saturday declares for Butler, and says the workman will work for him independent of all dictation. The Cleveland dose is making the democratic party quite lonesome.

Joseph Brucker, the eloquent German orator, of Milwaukee, whom the democrats came near mobbing when Schurz spoke in that city, because he attempted to say a word in defense of Blaine, will stump Ohio, and prevent Carl Schurz from muddling the minds of the German voters in that state as to the real issues of the canvass.

The fresh life, which the democrats once in a while tell the people is entering their side of the canvass, is a good deal like Kooly advertising to start his motor. The day for starting it is fixed time after time, but the motor never works. When you try to find the fresh life in Cleveland's boom, you are searching for a thing as much out of reach as perpetual motion.

Mr. Robert M. La Follette, the present district attorney of Dane county, has been nominated for congress by the republicans of the Third district, the convention having been held at Dodgeville, on Tuesday. Mr. La Follette is a young man of, much promise. Five years ago he received the prize in the inter-state oratorical contest, his oration being pronounced the best ever heard in interstate contest. There is no doubt that he will be elected. The district is strong, 17 republican, and was only lost two years ago by a division in the republican ranks growing out of the Keyes-Hazleton contest.

The republican victory in Maine is more significant than was at first supposed. The republicans have carried every county in the state with the exception of one. There will be only two democrats in the state senate, and possibly none. Four-fifths of the members-elect to the legislature are republicans. Mr. Blaine's own city gave a republican majority of 252 greater than ever before, and his county gives 3,000 republican majority, which exceeds every previous republican victory. The majority is greater than any given the republicans since 1868. The result is grand, and shows that the influence of Blaine in his own state worked most advantageously for the republican ticket.

Poor Hendricks, he is not without his trouble in this campaign. To be on the tail end of a ticket whose head is Grover Cleveland, gives Mr. Hendricks humiliation, and makes him feel that he is out of place. He now takes the liberty of saying openly and above board, that he would have had the cordial support of General Butler had he been given the first, instead of the second place on the democratic ticket. The democrats are learning the many blunders "committed in the one supreme act of their national

PARIS GOES WILD.

The War Spirit at Its Highest Pitch Along the Boulevards.

Fury of the Postillone at Naples—Three Hundred Deaths in One Day—American Live Stock in England.

New York, Sept. 10.—A London cablegram to The Sun says: Paris is seething with excitement over the prospect of war with China. The scenes along the boulevards are marvellous. The Parisians have been seen in Paris since the days of July, 1870, when the war spirit against Germany was at its highest pitch. The special impetus which the war spirit received has been given by a widely circulated rumor that France has been obliged to force a declaration of war by France. The grounds upon which he urges a declaration of war are, as reported, that the present status prevents effective action on the part of the French forces, although it does not by any means prevent the possibility and probability of complications with neutral powers.

Special state fair time-tables will take effect at the 6 o'clock a. m., September 16, and remain in effect until 11 o'clock p. m. September 19th. The general arrangements for the accommodation of exhibitors and guests, are much more perfect and ample than ever before. Everything about the management has been vigorous and thorough, that the fair of 1884 might be the most successful ever given in the history of the society. The people of Janesville and the farmers of Rock county should do all they can in contributing to the success of the fair. There will be many special features which will prove of general interest, and all who attend will be well paid for their trouble. Special trains will be run on all the roads and the fare will be reduced to excursion rates.

CLEVELAND THE REFORMER. Tammany hall had a meeting the other night to consider the question of organization. The hall was densely packed. John Kelly presided. It was an interesting meeting because it somewhat foreshadowed what Tammany would do in this campaign. Senator Grady was there, who measured words with Wisconsin's Little Bragg in the democratic national convention. The proceedings were made doubly interesting on account of the speech Grady made. The Gazette takes the liberty of reproducing one paragraph from that speech:

"I have no desire to dictate here. I will give before the central committee the reasons that actuate my course. I will follow to the far end, wherever it may lead, the course I have begun, because, if there is a man who forgives his enemies, I am one who follows the enemy through thick and thin, returning fire for fire, and on or the other goes down. I have no personal grievance against Governor Cleveland. I shall speak from the record, and I will ask to be ostracized from all decent society if I can not point to corruption stalking straight to the door of the executive mansion, and knocking at the door and coming out of the door with all that corruption sought at the expense of the people. If I cannot prove that bribes known to fall in the assembly in 1883 were placed so near Mr. Cleveland that if he does not have the money he can get it any time. If I cannot prove that I am not what I profess to be."

Here are some charges that the democrats of New York ought not to permit to go unnoticed. They are solemn charges, because the democracy claim for the man Cleveland, an unspotted record. It will be Mr. Grady's purpose to show that Cleveland is the biggest political fraud of the age, and that showing will not be difficult for him to make. He knows Cleveland well, and those who know him best are best prepared to make the attack on the public record.

There are some 60,000 votes in the Tammany society. The agreement of the society to support Cleveland, will not carry all the votes of Tammany to the democratic candidate. Grady's influence will be a far reaching power, and thousands of the Tammany organization will go with him in opposing Cleveland.

THE DEMOCRATS.

Special to the Gazette. MADISON, Sept. 10th, 2 p. m. A good many vacant chairs marked the opening of the democratic state convention at noon to-day, and many of the old faces heretofore seen in democratic conventions were noticeably absent. About two thirds of the state was represented, many young men being present as delegates. The convention was called to order by Dr. Anderson, who having been authorized by the state central committee, placed in nomination A. S. Ritchie, of Racine, as temporary chairman. Mr. Ritchie, in making his speech of thanks, made an oratorical school-boy speech drawn entirely from democratic papers, his statements being so utterly untrue that the old war horses of democracy hung their heads in shame. On motion Mr. Wilson, of Dane county, was elected temporary secretary. The usual committees were on motion appointed. A resolution was adopted referring all resolutions to the committee on resolutions, and on motion of Joe Rankin the convention took a recess until 3 p. m. It was announced yesterday that Col. Vilas would surely be nominated as candidate for governor, but the wily colored gracefully stopped all resources of that kind by announcing that he had promised Farmer Pratt, of Racine, that he would not stand in his way. Farmer Pratt will be nominated by acclamation as soon as the convention reassembles.

As an article in preparing food, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is whole some, and the ingredients that enter into its composition are from all natural sources that would render them detrimental to health. In these respects it stands alone. The public should obtain articles that are good and healthful as Dr. Price's Cream Baking powder.

THE ELECTION IN MAINE.

Latest Returns—Some Specimen Newspaper Comment.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 10.—Two hundred and eighty-eight towns gave Robie, 64,182; Rodman, 47,537. The returns indicate that the house will be composed of 117 Republicans and four Democrats, a Republican gain of seven. The total vote in the First congressional district minus one town is: Robie, (Rep.) 17,450; Cleaves, (Dem.) 16,011; Reed's plurality 839. Reed's plurality two years ago was 1,353. WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 10.—The Evening Star (Independent) refers to the result of the election in Maine, as follows: The Republican majority in Maine according to accounts thus far received, will rest somewhat between 19,000 and 10,000. The Republicans carry all the congressional districts also, re-electing Mr. Reed by an increased majority. This result must be accepted as a refutation of the charge that Mr. Blaine is unpopular in his own state and that the Republican party is moribund there. The majority in Maine is truly "old-fashioned" in its age, as it is much larger than any secured since 1870.

New York, Sept. 10.—The result of Monday's election in Maine is commented upon by the New York papers as follows: The Sun, which is shifting for all sides during the campaign, says: There are crumbs of comfort for both Republicans and Democrats in the returns from Maine. The Republicans may rejoice that the majority for their candidate is quite as large as the most sanguine had prophesied it would be, and the Democrats may find consolation in the fact that they gain somewhat in the manufacturing cities.

The Times, a Cleveland paper, remarks: The Blaine managers ought to be allowed all the encouragement they can gather from the effect of their great and practically unopposed efforts in the state from which they have taken their candidate. They need it for their personal consolation, but that is all the good it will do them.

The Star, Democratic, and anti-Cleveland, says: So far as its influence on the result in November goes, it amounts to nothing one way or another. We advise the Democratic managers to be satisfied with the result they will really mean something, and nobody knows it better than James Gillespie Blaine.

The World, Democratic, thinks the Republican majority should have been 20,000. It says: The result of the election in Maine is an exposure of the weakness of Mr. Blaine and an acknowledgment that his magnetic influence will not attract the close states of the west.

The Post, anti-Blaine Republican, says: The noise over the Maine election will subside presently, and it will then be seen that the situation is the same as it was before.

The Mail and Express, Republican, says: The majority for Robie and the peculiar triumph for Reed will be a source of pride, satisfaction and encouragement to the Republican party at large than any other of its victories in Maine in a presidential year.

THE LATEST MISCREANT.

Young Bateman Hunted by an Avengeing Mob, but Escapes Lynching.

St. Joseph, Mo., Sept. 12.—Bateman, who murdered the two McLaughlin children on Aug. 31, was removed to this city from Savannah during Monday night for safe keeping. Toward evening the officers received information that between 100 and 300 people from the scene of the crime, all heavily armed, had arrived in the city, intending to lynch Bateman. It was decided to remove the prisoner, and accordingly he was spirited away and is now lodged in the city jail.

From early evening until 10 o'clock a crowd of several hundred people surrounded the jail. Evidently they awaited the arrival of a leader. On learning that Bateman had been removed the crowd dispersed, asserting that they would stay in the city.

THEIR NARROW ESCAPE.

Twenty-Five People Just Saved from a Terrible Accident.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 10.—The last line coach on the Pan Handle road met with a peculiar accident Tuesday evening. While the train was entering the city it stopped for a few minutes on the crossing of the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railroad. A freight train was being made up on the latter road, and three cars were shunted into the main track just as the passenger train was about to start. The freight train, which was heavily loaded, was stopped by the signal, and the passenger train, which was also heavily loaded, was stopped by the signal. The freight train, which was heavily loaded, was stopped by the signal, and the passenger train, which was also heavily loaded, was stopped by the signal.

Celebrating Her Admission. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 10.—In Sacramento Friday the celebration of the admission of California into the Union was observed with great enthusiasm. The day opened with the ringing of church bells and the firing of a salute on the capitol grounds. The procession formed at 9 o'clock. It presented a highly creditable appearance. No such gathering of young manhood has ever been witnessed in California. The line moved the governor and staff, city officials, the Sacramento fire department, a number of allegorical cars, Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. There was an oration by R. T. Devlin, speeches by Governor Stoneman, Mayor Brown and others, and a poem by H. J. W. Davis. In the evening the pioneers held a reception and banquet. Business was universally suspended.

In San Francisco the day was also generally observed by processions, speech-making and banquets.

Knights of St. John and Malta. BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 10.—The annual convocation of the Knights of St. John and Malta, of the Knights of St. John and Malta, opened in this city Tuesday and will continue in session for three days. But little business was transacted during the forenoon, save the appointment of a committee on credentials. The meeting in the afternoon was called to order by Eminent Grand Commander E. Henderson, of Syracuse. The session was taken up in electing members to the various committees. The committee met and organized at eight.

Pennsylvania Colored Odd Fellows. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 10.—The fourth annual convocation of the district colored lodges of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania assembled here at 10 o'clock. The state district comprises fifty-seven lodges, with a membership of over 3,000, from which delegates are in attendance.

A Meet of Wheelmen. HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 10.—The parade previous to the races of the Connecticut Bicycle club took place Tuesday morning at 10:30. There were 137 men in line. There are hundreds of visiting wheelmen in the city.
